Memorial Garden Gets Spruced Up for Fall

Thanks to a generous gift from Dr. William and Val Stephan (sister and brother-in-law of Steve Baloga), the Gazebo in the Memorial Garden (actually, the steeple from the original St. George Presbyterian Church) was recently sandblasted down to the bare yellow pine and re-painted. Thanks to the Stephans for making this much-needed maintenance possible.

You may also have noticed that there is completely new sod in the Memorial Garden. Due to the invasion of spurge this summer, Elder Wayne Bartlett elected to have the garden re-sodded in mid-August. The new grass is wonderful and really spruces up the Memorial Garden

Be sure to visit the Memorial Garden and enjoy the beautiful paint job and lovely new lawn.

Each month at our stated Session meetings, our Teaching and Ruling Elders are invited to share any scripture that has spoken to their hearts in the previous month as part of their report. Building Fund Pledge Update

As you all know, we have a mortgage payment of $1,343.51 due each month. The mortgage has a principal of $184,117 and a 15 year term.

Through the end of August, we had received pledges totaling $65,456.00 and cash donations of $19,449.45 towards retiring the mortgage. We hope to maintain the tradition of paying off our mortgages early.

If you have pledged to the building fund, thank you. If you have not yet made a pledge, please prayerfully consider how you can help us to pay off the mortgage and free funds to be used for additional improvements that we need to make.

"Your faith has saved you; go in peace."

Rev. Ralph's Food for Thought

As the summer draws to a conclusion and we begin to focus our thoughts and energies on the coming Fall celebrations and activities I thought I would use the opportunity of the slow summer schedule to answer a few questions that I am asked with some regularity.

1. Pastor, when in worship we say together the Apostles Creed we use the word "catholic". Do Presbyterians consider themselves to be Roman Catholics?

No, the word catholic in the creed you might notice is in the lower case and means "universal". Presbyterians believe that on the great tree of Christianity we are merely a branch and not the tree. The tree consisting of all the branches represents the "universal" and worldwide Christian Church Universal to which we belong.

2. Pastor, at the end of the service you do the "charge and benediction", very often bowing your head, just what are you doing?

The "charge" is in essence your mission and you should listen to it thoughtfully. "Benediction" comes from the Latin "Bene Dictum" meaning "good words" or "blessing". With a blessing being a form of prayer, it is appropriate to bow one's head to receive it.

3. Pastor, there are so many translations of the Bible, which one is the best?

The one that best speaks to you, some people prefer the poetic language of the King James Bible and some like the easy readability of the Living Bible. However I prefer a version for study that is faithful in translating the original Hebrew and Greek of the earliest Bibles. At the moment, in my thinking, the New American Standard is the most accurate and readable. In worship we use the New Revised Standard which itself is a fine translation but is a little more readable and a little less accurate in its translation. As I said, use the one that best leads you to the Lord and nourishes your faith.

Hope this answered some of your questions, any more, just ask!

May the conclusion of the summer bring you rest, peace and contentment in the Lord!

*In Christ

Upcoming Sunday Adult Education Topics

Rev. Ralph: Living Gentile in Mormon Country

Rev. Harold: Luke – looking at the gospel of Luke a new way. Our study will look at Luke as a great cathedral with windows, stained glass windows, shedding light on Jesus as savior and Lord.

*Pastor Note Regarding Hospital Visitation: ****

Please keep in mind that with the federal laws that went into force a number of years ago, hospitals are no longer allowed to give out any information in regards to patients to visitors, including clergy. Unless a visitor requests a specific name, the hospital desk is not allowed to give out any information, including religious affiliation.

So, if you or a family member is hospitalized please alert the Pastor, your Deacon, or the church office. Otherwise, we will not be informed of your presence there and unable to assist or offer pastoral care.

Choir Notes

"Choir Season" has officially arrived and we are all looking forward to a great year for our choirs! Bell Choir rehearsals will begin on Tuesday, September 3rd at 3:45 p.m., and the Chancel Choir rehearsals will begin on Thursday, September 5th, also at 3:45 p.m. We welcome anyone who wishes to sing in the Chancel Choir. If you have had experience in playing Bells, please let me know as we are always in need of substitute ringers.

Looking forward to seeing you at rehearsals!

Christian Education

There are two very important Dates for you to reserve on your Calendars:

October 13, 2013

From 11:30 am to 2:00 pm we will celebrate our Fall Festival to kick off the new church year. We'll have more about this fun event in the October newsletter. If you would be willing to show us your hobbies, crafts, etc., please contact me at 703-9504.

This is one way for us to get to know each other better.

November 16, 2013

CALLING ALL CHILDREN – "Christmas Blessings" – our Children's Advent Workshop from 9:30 am to Noon.

On November 16, we will have an Advent Workshop for children age 3 and up. This advent workshop will be a musical marvel of CHRISTMAS BLESSINGS. We will be putting together our very own bell choir! We will learn two Christmas Carols using our own set of bells. Let all your neighbors' children and grandchildren know about this wonderful opportunity. Register by calling the church office as soon as possible. 628-9158.

Church Growth

Help us kick off the new church year! Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church will celebrate our Fall Festival on Sunday, October 13, 2013, from 11:30 am to 2:00 pm. There will be food, games, displays and other activities to help you get enthused and reacquainted with our mission and our fellowship. Mark your calendars now as this is the one event you do not want to miss!

Watch for further details on our website, our October newsletter and in your bulletins.

Gay Cunningham

Fellowship

After a quiet summer, it is time to get ready for fall.

On Sunday, October 13, Good Shepherd will celebrate autumn and the beginning of the church year. There will be a pot luck lunch after the morning service. We will serve chili dogs, chips, coleslaw and beverages. Bring your best dessert or salad to help us celebrate. Watch for sign-up sheets in September.

We still have plenty of choice dates available to serve coffee after worship. Even if you don't bake, here are cookies in the kitchen pantry to use and you can help us out by brewing the coffee and putting it out. Serving coffee is a great way to get to say "Hello," to visitors and friends.

Thank you all for your help during the year.

We are looking forward to Fall Fest. See you there.

Carolyn Jentzer

Mission/Outreach

August was very quiet and we will be in a bit of a lull until we start preparations for the CROP Walk, scheduled for November 9, in October.

Some of you may have seen Rev. Ralph wearing a shirt with the PCUSA logo and our name on it. Don't let him be the only one with a shirt. We will be taking orders from the congregation at the Fall Festival. We can get shirts, golf towels, baseball caps, laptop bags and a number of other items. We'll have more information and prices in October.

The Mission/Outreach Committee is still seeking members. If you are interested in joining our group, please let me know.

May God's blessings continue to shine upon each and every one of us.

Stephen Ministry

Stephen Ministers and Good Shepherd Presbyterian Church

We continue to be blessed with a wonderful group of Stephen Ministers. Stephen Ministers provide high-quality, confidential, Christ-centered care and support to people experiencing grief, divorce, cancer, job loss, loneliness, disability, relocation and other life difficulties. All interactions with Stephen Ministers are completely confidential.

We have thirteen Stephen Ministers in our congregation, eleven of whom have been assigned care receivers. They are led by Rev. Ralph, Bob McGrath and Anne Patten.

We encourage members of the congregation who believe they would benefit from working with a Stephen Minister to see Rev. Ralph, Anne Patten or Bob McGrath.

Stewardship

A Stewardship Minute for September - "Bearing Fruit for Jesus"

We are excited to tell you that our stewardship theme for this year is Bearing Fruit for Jesus!: His Grace and Power at Work within You. This will start on October 13, 2013. The following is an introduction to what God's Word says about bearing fruit:

Jesus said, "Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, unless it abides in the vine, so neither can you, unless you abide in me. I am the vine, you are the branches; he who abides in me, and I in him, he bears much fruit; for apart from me you can do nothing" (John 15:4-5). Fruit characterizes the life of the Christian steward. It is interesting to note that, in this passage above, Jesus did not say, "You should bear fruit." He stated that when we abide in him, it follows naturally that we will bear fruit.

Paul explained to the Galatians what that fruit is: "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control." "Since we live by the Spirit," Paul exhorted, "let us keep in step with the Spirit. Let us not become conceited, provoking and envying each other" (Galatians 5:25-26). As children of God, we have this fruit because his Spirit lives in us. We do not bear fruit as a result of our own efforts, but we do cease to bear fruit when we give in to our sinful natures, becoming, in Paul's words, "conceited, provoking and envying each other."

Just as fruit needs light for its growth and maturation, so do Christians need to have their lives illumined by Christ. They then are able to produce spiritual fruit and shed that light on the world around them. Ephesians 5:11 cautions us to, "Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness" but to "Live as children of light (for the fruit of the light consists in all goodness, righteousness and truth) and find out what pleases the Lord" (Ephesians 5:8-9).

We discover God's will through his word and through prayer. As Paul prayed for the Colossians, we, too, can ask God "to fill [us] with the knowledge of his will through all spiritual wisdom and understanding . . . in order that [we] may live a life worthy of the Lord and may please him in every way: bearing fruit in every good work . . ." (Colossians 1:9-10).

God has plans and uses for our lives. When we abide in Christ, we will be fruitful. We will discover and follow his plan, and we will use the gifts he has given us in ministry to the people of the world.

Website Update

The first week in August was a turbulent time for our website, gspcsg.org. All external links on our website were down from late Monday, August 5th, through mid-afternoon on Tuesday, August 6th. During this time, there was no access to newsletters, Brown Bag Lunch recordings, pledge cards and the Flowers & Fellowship reservation calendar. The external server that we used to store these items was taken offline without notice on August 5th and all content was transferred to a new server on August 6th.

If that wasn't enough, we were notified on August 6th that the site that hosts our website, forministry.com, will cease hosting services on October 31. We will be moving the website to a new host and, during the move, will be completely revamping the content and format. Look for the new, improved gspcsg.org in mid-October. The address will stay the same and we'll keep all of the content you're used to seeing but we'll be adding new content and a new look for the re-launch. If you have suggestions for items you'd like to see on the website, please let me know.

I hope you'll visit the website soon and often!

Award Winning Cookies at Fellowship

Cookies are always good, but at fellowship on August 18th we were treated to the cookies that won the Sweepstakes in the Cookie Baking Competition at the Washington County Fair. Sandy Paige's smile was great to see as she placed her wonderful Herbal Citrus Cookies on our fellowship table. If you missed fellowship that Sunday you missed seeing a crowd go "bananas" over a plate of cookies.
